

To the Honorable Mayor & Aldermen
of the City of Cambridge

The undersigned, doing business in Cambridgeport, respectfully represent that there exists a great necessity for improvement in the means of crossing the streets in the immediate vicinity of Cambridge Square; and pray that stones may be laid as early as practicable, from the most convenient points; say

from the South Westerly Corner of Main St
Western Ave,

— Northwesterly to the corner of Prospect St —

— Easterly to the sidewalk on River St. —

Also that there may hereafter be a light on Main Street, West of the Square, where the gas light post stands not in use.
