

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Nov. 14. 1858-

Ordered,

That notice be given to the heirs of Joseph Porter, to close up, ~~forthwith~~, by gratings or in some other suitable manner, the openings in the sidewalks in front of the basement-windows of the brick building belonging to said heirs, and standing on the southerly side of Brattle Street, just west of the intersection of Brighton Street with Harvard Square: - so that said sidewalk may be safe and convenient for the public travel.

Attest:

Justin A. Jacobs, City Clerk.
