CAMBRIDGE MA.

Dear Mrs. Drury,

I hope that you will express to Councillor Duehay and to the Mayor, Vice Mayor and City Councillors the deep appreciation of the Bundy family. We were touched not only by the eloquent resolution of January 1947, but by

The Council's remembrance of his service at Harvard and in Washington. The ten years we lived in Cambridge was one of the happiest periods of our life together, and it was wonderful to have Mac's life remembered by this distinguished body.

Sincerely yours,
Mary L. Bundy

Dear Ms. Drury,

I hope that you will express to Councillor Dineen and to the Mayor, Vice Mayor and City Councillors the deep appreciation of the Bundy family. We were touched not only by the eloquent resolution of January 1997, but by

The Council's remembrance of his service at Harvard and in Washington. The ten years we lived in Cambridge was one of the happiest periods of our life together, and it was wonderful to have Mac's life remembered by this distinguished body.

Sincerely yours,
Mary L. Bundy
