John J. Doran, 80

Retired lift operator

John J. Doran of Bourne, a retired lift operator, died Friday at Tobey Hospital in Wareham after suffering a heart attack in his home. He was 80.

Born in Cork City, Ireland, Mr. Doran moved to Cambridge with his family at the age of 16. He graduated from what is now known as Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School in 1925.

He worked as a high-lift operator for the First National warehouse in Somerville for 35 years until he retired in 1974.

Active in many community groups, Mr. Doran was a past Grand Sachem of the Order of Redmen in Wareham. He also was an active worker and volunteer for the National Braille Press in Wareham, collecting money for the Braille Press.

An avid gardener, he spent winters in Rockledge, Fla.

Mr. Doran leaves his wife of 54 years, Helen C. (Francis) of Bourne; a son, John J. Jr. of Quincy; three daughters, Barbara A. Rayne and Marilyn H. Rayne both of Billerica and Elizabeth M. Cole of West Yarmouth; two sisters, Mary Swanson of Dorchester and Eleanor Galleani of Cambridge; a brother, Roger Doran of Dorchester; 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A funeral Mass will be said today at 9 a.m. in Saint Margaret's Church, Buzzards Bay. Burial will be in Oakland Grove Cemetery, Bourne.
