Mr. Joseph Connarton, City Clerk
City Hall

Cambridge, MA 02139

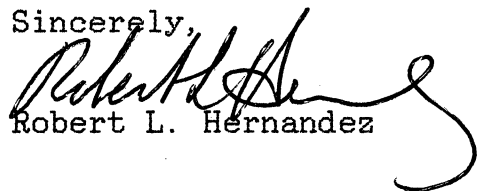

Sir:

On behalf of Kevin Davis, a resident of Cambridge who was recently terminated from the Cambridge Police Department, I hereby request the opportunity to address the City Council at its next meeting concerning the manner in which his Civil Service hearing was handled.

Specifically, Civil Service considered and based its finding upholding termination on oral allegations without supporting documentation, that three complaints of sexual harassment had been sustained against Mr. Davis since 1982. In fact, such allegations, are false and the City has in its possession the documents to disprove them.

A simple investigation by the City should readily prove or disprove the allegations without the need to resort to litigation which will be costly to all concerned.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Hernandez
