An Ordinance
In relation to the sale of Junks, old metals and second-hand articles.

In the year One thousand eight hundred and sixty four.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge, as follows: -

Sect. 1. Licenses may be granted, according to law, to any persons to be keepers of shops for the purchase, sale or barter of junks, old metals, or any second hand articles, and to be dealers herein, which licenses shall contain the following conditions and restrictions: -

First - That every person at the time of receiving said license shall pay therefor the sum of ten dollars.

Second - That every keeper of such shop shall keep a book in which shall be written, at the time of every purchase, a description of the article or articles purchased, the name and residence of the person from whom, and the day and hour when such purchase was made; and that such book shall at all times be open to the inspection of the mayor and aldermen, or of any person by them authorized.

Third - That every keeper of such shop shall put in some suitable place a sign designating that he is licensed as such, and containing his name.

Fourth - That the said shops shall not be kept open, except at such hours as shall be specially allowed by the terms of the license; and that no purchase of any of the articles aforesaid, shall be made by the keepers thereof or by any person for them, except during such hours as shall be designated in the license. And that said shops shall at all times be open to the inspection of the mayor and aldermen, or of any person by them authorized.

Fifth - That no keeper of such shop shall, directly or indirectly, either purchase, or receive by way of barter or exchange, any of the articles aforesaid of any minor, or apprentice, knowing or having reason to believe him to be sick.

Sect. 2. Any person having ob-tained a license under the pro-visions of this ordinance, who shall violate any of the conditions thereof, shall upon the conviction thereof, pay a fine of not less than one, nor more than fifty dollars, for each offence to be recovered by complaint, before the justice of the Police Court.
