Dear Board of Selectmen:

Congress has been grappling with the difficult problem of reducing the federal deficit for the past few weeks. In the course of the debate, various proposals have been put forth, each dealing differently with the issues of concern to you and your constituents.

To bring you up-to-date on these and other aspects of the federal budget, I will be holding a budget briefing on Monday, May 20 at 9:30 a.m. on the 21st floor of the McCormack Building, One Ashburton Place. I encourage you to attend and to bring any questions you may have regarding the federal budget. I hope this session will prove useful as you set your own budget priorities.

If you are able to attend, please respond to Monica Conyngham of my Boston Staff at 223-1890. I look forward to seeing you on the 20th.

Sincerely,

John Kerry
United States Senator
