

City of Cambridge

36.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 13, 1993

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WALSH
COUNCILLOR WOLF

WHEREAS: The destiny of an institution is deeply embedded in its past; and

WHEREAS: In a span of 120 years of consecrated Christian service, St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church, through the grace of Almighty God, has witnessed and survived a myriad of unprecedented changes; and

WHEREAS: Honor is given to the tenacious early Christian pioneers, whose foresight and indomitable spirit have built bridges of inspiration that have withstood the test of time, leaving a legacy that defies erosion; and

WHEREAS: On October 9, 1993, the congregation and friends of St. Paul A.M.E. Church will unite in the celebration of its illustrious past, with a festive luncheon and evening gospel concert, featuring the Richard Smallwood Singers. Sunday, October 10, Rt. Rev. Philip R. Cousin, Presiding Prelate of the First Episcopal District will deliver the Anniversary sermon; and

WHEREAS: For six score years, your commitment to exemplifying and manifesting the principles of Christianity in the greater Cambridge community and beyond has been a balance wheel of faith and outreach; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That I, Kenneth E. Reeves, Mayor of the City of Cambridge and the entire Cambridge City Council do hereby congratulate Rev. Dr. Leroy Attles, officers and members of St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church, as they celebrate and reflect on a glorious past, prayerfully anticipating a future of new challenges and expanding ministries.

In City Council September 13, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk

D. Margaret Drury

City of Cambridge

36.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 13, 1993

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The destiny of an institution is deeply embedded in its past; and

WHEREAS: In a span of 120 years of consecrated Christian service, St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church, through the grace of Almighty God, has witnessed and survived a myriad of unprecedented changes; and

WHEREAS: Honor is given to the tenacious early Christian pioneers, whose foresight and indomitable spirit have built bridges of inspiration that have withstood the test of time, leaving a legacy that defies erosion; and

WHEREAS: On October 9, 1993, the congregation and friends of St. Paul A.M.E. Church will unite in the celebration of its illustrious past, with a festive luncheon and evening gospel concert, featuring the Richard Smallwood Singers. Sunday, October 10, Rt. Rev. Philip R. Cousin, Presiding Prelate of the First Episcopal District will deliver the Anniversary sermon; and

WHEREAS: For six score years, your commitment to exemplifying and manifesting the principles of Christianity in the greater Cambridge community and beyond has been a balance wheel of faith and outreach; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That I, Kenneth E. Reeves, Mayor of the City of Cambridge and the entire Cambridge City Council do hereby congratulate Rev. Dr. Leroy Attles, officers and members of St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church, as they celebrate and reflect on a glorious past, prayerfully anticipating a future of new challenges and expanding ministries.

Dechay Myers, Sullivan, Gossney, Walsh, Wolf
Consent Order # 36
Mayor Reeves resolution on St. Paul
African Methodist Episcopal Church. R

391

In City Council,

Sept. 13, 1993

Order adopted