WHEREAS: By act of Congress, the third Monday of January is celebrated as the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday; and

WHEREAS: The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. spent his life leading the forces of good in its eternal struggle with the powers of injustice and inequality, and inspired the oppressed to break the bonds of subjugation by proclaiming "To accept injustice or segregation passively is to say to the oppressor that his actions are morally right"; and

WHEREAS: This holiday celebrates the moral and social leadership of a man who through the power of non-violence led millions of Americans in bringing the evil of segregation to its knees; and helped guide our nation from the shadows of hatred into the fine light of love; and

WHEREAS: Each year, the Cambridge Public Library holds an Annual Birthday Commemoration of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., thereby paying tribute to the principle of selfless dedication to the public good embodied by that greatest of leaders of men and women, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and

WHEREAS: This year marks the twenty second such commemoration sponsored by the Cambridge Public Library, prophetically pre-dating the institution of the national Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday; and

WHEREAS: At this twenty second Annual Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemoration on Sunday, January 7, 1996 at 3:00 p.m. at the Central Square Library, in addition to the traditional wreath laying, there will be an uplifting musical presentation by the Voices of Hope, an address by Reverend Dr. Thomas J.S. Mikelson, Senior Minister, First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church and a Martin Luther King, Jr. scholar who was awarded the Martin Luther King, Jr. Freedom Award by the Progressive National Baptist Convention; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council joins the Cambridge Public Library on this Sunday, January 7, 1996, in honoring the memory of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and be it further

RESOLVED: That all Cambridge residents are encouraged to support the 22nd Annual Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemoration to be held on Sunday, January 15, 1995, and to uphold the spirit of community service by which Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. lived.
