In Common Council Sep. 30. 1850

The joint committee on ^{Ordinances,} ~~Finance~~, to whom was referred an Ordinance in addition to an Ordinance relating to the assessing and collecting of Taxes, have considered the same, and recommend its passage, as amended.

By order of the committee,

Lucius R. Paige

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Dec 29 1858

~~Ordered,~~ The Committee on Ordinances to whom was referred the ordinance establishing the compensation of the collector of Taxes have considered the same and find that the ordinance as referred, is wanting an enacting clause, and will require a new ordinance, which will require more time pass the same, than the remainder of the Municipal Year. They would therefore
