

City of Cambridge

13.

IN CITY COUNCIL
June 3, 1985

Mayor Russell

- WHEREAS: We, in Cambridge, are enriched by the diversity of ethnicity, race, heritage and culture our elder citizens bring to our City; and
- WHEREAS: Our elder citizens total almost 12,000, representing 12% of our City's population; and
- WHEREAS: Our elder citizens offer a wealth of educational, work and life experience that every member of our City benefits from and continue to serve as valuable resources to our City; and
- WHEREAS: Today, more than ever, every citizen must be well informed of the issues affecting elderly services and programs and is being called upon to participate actively in legislative priorities concerning our elders; and
- WHEREAS: We, all of the residents of Cambridge, would like to reiterate our support and extend to our elder citizens our deepest respect, thanks and appreciation; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Leonard J. Russell, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, members of the City Council, and all the people of the City of Cambridge, do hereby officially proclaim June 2 through June 9, 1985, as Golden Age Week in Cambridge and extend to all of our elder citizens our warmest thanks and appreciation for the great enrichment they bring to our City.

In City Council June 3, 1985.
