

39

Mauryfillon division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, where she served for two years; and

Whereas: This City Council was deeply saddened at learning of the death of Diane (Theis) Lund on May 13, 1995; and

Whereas: Diane was born in Los Angeles, graduated from Stanford ~~High~~ University in 1958 and from Harvard Law School, magna cum laude, in 1961, and also received a master's degree ~~in~~ from Harvard University School of Education in 1989; and

Whereas: Diane began her ^{distinguished} ~~career~~ career in 1961 with the Boston law firm of Henick, Smith, Donald, Farley and Ketchum; in 1969 she joined the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute where she co-authored ~~legislation~~ Chapter 622, the state law that guaranteed female children equal access to educational opportunities in Massachusetts public schools; in 1972 she became the second woman appointed to the faculty of Harvard Law School, where she taught and lectured for twelve years; and in 1976, she was a founding partner of the Cambridge law firm, Healy, Lund and Fiske; and in 1991 she was appointed an ~~Assistant~~ Attorney General in the Charities in 1975 Diane was appointed to the Judicial Nominating Commission for a three-year term;

Whereas: In 1978, Diane was appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court as a member of the Board of Bar Overseers, and in 1993 became its first Chairwoman; ^{Diane} ~~she~~ was a board member of the Committee for Public Justice for eight years; and in 1985 she was elected a member of the Board of Overseers of Bowdoin; and

Whereas: In 1993 Diane cofounded the Maine Lawyer's Review and was a senior editor until her death;

~~Whereas: Diane was an elected town meeting member~~

Whereas: Diane ~~is~~ ~~passing~~ leaves her husband, Erik of Maine Woolwin; her two sons, Benjamin W. of ~~Maine~~ ^{Maine} and Theodore A. of Cambridge; her daughter, Kristen of Cambridge; her mother Meryl Theis of ~~Palmdale~~ California and her sister Noreen of California; and

Whereas: Diane, her brilliance, her braveness, her humor and her kindness, will be sorely missed by all she loved and touched; now therefore be it

Resolved: That this City Council go on record extending its deepest sympathy to the family ~~of Frederick~~ and dear friends of Diane Lurd; and be it further

Resolved: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed resolution to the Lurd family on behalf of the entire City Council.

City of Cambridge

39.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 15, 1995

COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR MYERS
MAYOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: This City Council was deeply saddened at learning of the death of Diane (Theis) Lund on May 13, 1995; and

WHEREAS: Diane was born in Los Angeles, graduated from Stanford University in 1958 and from Harvard Law School, magna cum laude, in 1961, and also received a master's degree from Harvard University School of Education in 1989; and

WHEREAS: Diane began her distinguished career in 1961 with the Boston law firm of Hetrick, Smith, Donald, Farley and Ketchum; in 1969 she joined the Massachusetts Law Reform Institute where she co-authored Chapter 622, the state law that guaranteed female children equal access to educational opportunities in Massachusetts public schools; in 1972 she became the second woman appointed to the faculty of Harvard Law School, where she taught and lectured for twelve years; and in 1976, she was a founding partner of the Cambridge law firm, Healy, Lund and Fiske; and then in 1991 she was appointed an assistant attorney general in the charities division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, where she served for two years; and

WHEREAS: In 1975, Diane was appointed to the Judicial Nominating Commission for a three-year term; in 1978, she was appointed by the Supreme Judicial Court as a member of the Board of Bar Overseers, and in 1983 became its first Chairwoman; Diane was a board member of the Committee for Public Justice for eight years; and in 1985 she was elected as a member of the Board of Overseers of Bowdoin; and

WHEREAS: In 1993 Diane co-founded the Maine Lawyer's Review and was a senior editor until her death; and

WHEREAS: Diane leaves her husband, Erik of Maine; her two sons, Benjamin W. of Maine and Theodore A. of Cambridge; her daughter, Kristen of Cambridge; her mother Meryl Theis of California and her sister Noreen of California; and

WHEREAS: Diane, her brilliance, her braveness, her humor and her kindness, will be sorely missed by all she loved and touched; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record extending its deepest sympathy to the family and dear friends of Diane Lund; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed resolution to the Lund Family on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council May 15, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

*Chairman of the Massachusetts House General
Office where she served for over 20 years*

This City Council was deeply saddened at the passing of Diane Lund on May 15, 1995

Diane was born in St. Augustine, graduated from Stanford University in 1968

R-479

Consent Order #39

Councillor Triantafillou and entire membership re:
Death resolution of Diane Lund.

In City Council May 15, 1995

Office of the Mayor and Council for the City of Vancouver
General: all the members of the City Council

Office of Diane (Lund) Council on March 13, 1995
in City Council and passed resolution of Council of 15

Diane Lund was born in the 1920s and was a member of the University in 1970 and was a member of the City Council in 1980 and was a member of the City Council in 1980 and was a member of the City Council in 1980