Best Wishes to all Cambridgeans during this holiday season. As we celebrate Christmas, Hanaka, Kwanzaa and Three Kings may we all be reminded that there are many unfortunate people in our city and beyond who wrestle with homelessness, hunger, abuse, poor health, mental illness and other unfortunate burdens. May this holiday time be a time of reflection as well as celebration. May we all take some time in this season to touch a life outside our familiar circle and try to help that life become more whole.
