

City of Cambridge

73.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 5, 1997

MAYOR RUSSELL
VICE MAYOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard; and

WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our City trees as a result of the blizzard; and

WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard; and

WHEREAS: Many City employees worked especially hard, some even risking their lives climbing high in the trees in the storm, getting branches off wires, clearing overhanging limbs, clearing streets and sidewalks so our children could safely walk to school and we could get to work; and

WHEREAS: Among those many City employees we may only thank a few today, but we wish to acknowledge the many who made unsung contributions to help save our trees and our lives; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the Urban Forestry Department, Larry Acosta, our City Arborist, Dan White, John Broughhall, Vincent Falcione, Kevin Martignetti, Roy McGlashing, Vincent Plosinski, and William Renzi; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many City employees who helped with the trees and the emergency such as Edward Chaisson, Shawn Headley, Steven Travers, Paul Carrington, Ed Merriman, Chet Betts, Louis Hawkins, Louis Hawkins, Louis Flores, Bill Rowe, David Denn, Richard Cabral, Albert Pedro, John Pyne, David Smith, Mike Quin, Donald Copeland, and those in the Water Department, such as Rick McGregor, Bob Bonnie, Denis Coleman, Steven Pasucui, Abe Mamiel, Joe Silver, Bill Schellbach, Ed Santa Maria, Dana Charlton, Phil Carey, Jean Rogers; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many City employees who dealt with the emergency such as Robert Healy, Richard Rossi, Ralph Dunphy, Richard Mederios, and the many who fielded the telephone calls Nancy Travers, Lenore Lawrence, Paul Cassidy, Tom Maynard, Charlie Sullivan, Carmen Gianatasio, Helen O'Regan, Diane Squires and Kathy Fosher; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many citizens of Cambridge who helped the trees by shaking off the snow, clearing branches, pruning the small trees and propping up fallen trees and bushes; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many landscape contractors, garden center employees, landscape architects and gardeners who continue to answer our many questions and help us figure out how best to cope with the aftermath of the recent storm; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record expressing its sincere thanks to everyone who worked so hard to preserve trees in Cambridge during the recent storm; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council request the Mayor and the Cambridge Tree Project to present a suitable certificate of appreciation to these individuals as a token of our appreciation for their help above and beyond the call of duty.

In City Council May 5, 1997

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

78.

May 1, 1997

MAYOR RUSSELL

- WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard
- WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard; and
- WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard; and
- WHEREAS: Many City Employees worked especially hard, some even risking their lives climbing high in the trees in the storm, getting branches off wires, clearing overhanging limbs, clearing streets and sidewalks so our children could safely walk to school and we could get to work; and
- WHEREAS: Among those many City employees we may only thank a few today, but we wish to acknowledge the many who made unsung contributions to help save our trees and our lives; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the Urban Forestry Department, Larry Acosta, our City Arborist, Dan White, John Broughhall, Vincent Falcione,, Kevin Martignetti, Roy McGlashing, Vincent Plosinski, and William Renzi, and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many City employees who helped with the trees and the emergency such as Edward Chaisson, Shawn Headly, Steven Travers, Paul Carrington, Ed Merriman, Chet Betts, Louis Hawkins, Louis Hawkins, Louis Flores,, Bill Rowe, David Denn, Richard Cabral, Albert Pedro, John Pyne,, David Smith, Mike Quin, Don Copeland, and those in the Water Department, such as Rick McGregor, Bob Bonnie, Denis Coleman, Steven Pascucci, Abe Mamiel,, Joe Silver, Bill Schellbach, Ed Santa Maria, Dana Charlton, Phil Carey, Jean Rogers, and;
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many City employees who dealt with the emergency such as Robert Healy, Richard Rossi,, Ralph Dunphy,,, Richard Mederios, and the many who fielded the telephone calls Nancy Travers, Lenore Lawrence, Paul Cassidy, Tom Maynard, Charlie Sullivan, Carmen Gianatasio,, Helen O'Regan, Diane Squires, and Kathy Foshier, and;
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many citizens of Cambridge who helped the trees by shaking off the snow, clearing branches, pruning the small trees and propping up fallen trees and bushes, and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many landscape contractors, garden center employees, landscape architects and gardeners who continue to answer our many questions and help us figure out how best to cope with the aftermath of the recent storm, now therefore be it;

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge city Council go on record expressing its sincere thank to everyone who worked so hard to preserve trees in Cambridge during the recent storm, and be it further;

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council request the Mayor and the Cambridge Tree Project to present a suitable certificate of appreciation to these individuals as a token of our appreciation for their help above and beyond the call of duty.

RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK
97 MAY -1 PM 4:02
CAMBRIDGE MA.

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many City employees who dealt with the emergency such as Robert Healy, Richard Rossi, Ralph Dunphy, Richard Mederios, and the many who fielded the telephone calls Nancy Travers, Lenore Lawrence, Paul Cassidy, Tom Maynard, Charlie Sullivan, Carmen Gianatasio, Helen O'Regan, Diane Squires and Kathy Fosher; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many citizens of Cambridge who helped the trees by shaking off the snow, clearing branches, pruning the small trees and propping up fallen trees and bushes; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many landscape contractors, garden center employees, landscape architects and gardeners who continue to answer our many questions and help us figure out how best to cope with the aftermath of the recent storm; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record expressing its sincere thanks to everyone who worked so hard to preserve trees in Cambridge during the recent storm; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council request the Mayor and the Cambridge Tree Project to present a suitable certificate of appreciation to these individuals as a token of our appreciation for their help above and beyond the call of duty.

City of Cambridge

73.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 5, 1997

MAYOR RUSSELL

- WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard; and
- WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our City trees as a result of the blizzard; and
- WHEREAS: Many people worked so many more hours than usual taking care of the terrible damage to our city trees as a result of the blizzard; and
- WHEREAS: Many City employees worked especially hard, some even risking their lives climbing high in the trees in the storm, getting branches off wires, clearing overhanging limbs, clearing streets and sidewalks so our children could safely walk to school and we could get to work; and
- WHEREAS: Among those many City employees we may only thank a few today, but we wish to acknowledge the many who made unsung contributions to help save our trees and our lives; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the Urban Forestry Department, Larry Acosta, our City Arborist, Dan White, John Broughhall, Vincent Falcione, Kevin Martignetti, Roy McGlashing, Vincent Plosinski, and William Renzi; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council wishes to honor the many City employees who helped with the trees and the emergency such as Edward Chaisson, Shawn Headley, Steven Travers, Paul Carrington, Ed Merriman, Chet Betts, Louis Hawkins, Louis Hawkins, Louis Flores, Bill Rowe, David Denn, Richard Cabral, Albert Pedro, John Pyne, David Smith, Mike Quin, Donald Copeland, and those in the Water Department, such as Rick McGregor, Bob Bonnie, Denis Coleman, Steven Pasucui, Abe Mamiel, Joe Silver, Bill Schellbach, Ed Santa Maria, Dana Charlton, Phil Carey, Jean Rogers; and

Consent Order #73

Entire memb. R-698

Mayor Russell re: Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to preserve trees in Cambridge during the recent storm.

In City Council May 5, 1997

ORDER ADOPTED