

Whereas:-

Arthur D. Reardon of 6 Camelia Ave, Cambridge, Life-long resident of said city passed on to his Creator ~~at the early age of~~ April 12, 1956 at the early age of 33, and

Whereas:-

Arthur D. Reardon, prominent businessman in the Donnelly Field area of Cambridge, was a great benefactor to athletic teams, youth groups, church organizations, veteran organizations, and numerous charitable activities, and

Whereas:-

Arthur D. Reardon served 41 months in the service of his country during World War II aboard the U.S.S Babitt as a seaman first class and during which service he was awarded the Victory medal, the American Theatre medal, and the European-African-Middle Eastern medal, therefore be it

Resolved:-

That the City Council of the City of Cambridge in session assembled acknowledges with deep sympathy the memory of Arthur D. Reardon, and records itself in favor of the naming of the junction of Hampshire Street and Broadway, commonly referred to as Lever Sq., the Arthur D. Reardon Square.....

Andrew T. Trodden

City of Cambridge

Councillor Trodden

In City Council,

June 24, 1963.

WHEREAS:-

Arthur D. Reardon of 6 Camelia Avenue, Cambridge, life-long resident of said city, passed on to his Creator April 12, 1956 at the early age of thirty-three, and

WHEREAS:-

Arthur D. Reardon, prominent business man in the Donnelly Field area of Cambridge, was a great benefactor to athletic teams, youth groups, church organizations, veteran organizations, and numerous charitable activities, and

WHEREAS:-

Arthur D. Reardon served forty-one months in the service of his country during World War II aboard the U.S.S. Babitt as a seaman first class and during which service he was awarded the Victory Medal, the American Theatre Medal, and the European-African-Middle Eastern Medal, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That the City Council of the City of Cambridge in session assembled acknowledges with deep sympathy the memory of Arthur D. Reardon and records itself in favor of the naming of the junction of Hampshire Street and Broadway, commonly referred to as Lever Square, the Arthur D. Reardon Square.

City Council June 24, 1963

Adopted by the City Council

9

Thomas M. McNamee

RESOLVE

City Council records itself in favor of naming Junction of Hampshire St. and Broadway, commonly referred to as Lever Square, the Arthur D. Rear-don Square

June 24, 1963

PTOR
Ancs From Dir
And Barthol

Mr. Trodden