CAMBRIDGE SUN

City Gets Less And Different Senate Districts

Cambridge will be included in three State Senatorial districts instead of four unless the redistricting plan approved by the legislature over the Governor's veto is successfully challenged in court.

The plan takes Cambridge ward two, now represented by Senator Oliver F. Ames, and makes it part of the second Suffolk district now represented by Senator Mario Umana. Under the new plan, Umana's district will include Cambridge wards 1, 2, and 4.

The second Middlesex district, now represented by Senator Francis X. McCann, will include Cambridge wards 5, 6, 8, 9, 10 and 11, four wards in Waltham, all of Belmont, and Boston ward 22.

The third Middlesex district, now represented by Denis McKenna, will include Cambridge wards, 3 and 7, all of Somerville, one ward in Everett, two wards in Medford and one ward in Boston.
