IN CITY COUNCIL

April 10, 1989

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: The week beginning April 23, 1989, is the Eighth Annual National Consumers Week; and
- WHEREAS: The 1989 theme, "Consumers Open Markets" acknowledges the powerful role consumers play in our nation's economy; and
- WHEREAS: A major function of our competitive free market system is to satisfy consumer demand; and
- WHEREAS: Consumers should have certain rights in these markets including the right to information, choice, safety, education, and to be heard; and
- WHEREAS: Ideal fairness for the consumer is achieved when educators, business, government, and consumers work together to insure equity, increased competition, and safety in our free market economy; and
- WHEREAS: National Consumers Week promotes consumer programs by both the public and private sector; encourages dialogue between consumers, business, and government; and broadens the scope of consumer awareness; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby designate April, 1989, in the City of Cambridge as NATIONAL CONSUMERS WEEK.
