WHEREAS: On Saturday morning, January 15th, 2000, the Cambridge Branch of the N.A.A.C.P. hosts its Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast, at the Marriott Hotel, in Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: The Guest Speaker will be Attorney Ozell Hudson, Jr. who for the past ten years has served as the Executive Director of the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law of the Boston Bar Association and has been involved in some of the most important legal battles of the past decade; and

WHEREAS: The purpose of this annual gathering is not only to celebrate the life of Dr. King, but also to remind ourselves of the history of struggle and the persistence of hope that the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday brings to us all; and

WHEREAS: Dr. King was one who championed the cause of human rights and dignity for all people; and

WHEREAS: Because Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, January 20th, is a national holiday, we are now all proud partners in history and it is in our hands to carry on his struggle for peace, equality and social justice; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council offer its congratulations to the Cambridge Branch of the N.A.A.C.P. on the occasion of the 15th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast, and join with those present in honoring the dedicated life of Dr. King. In his words, "Man must evolve for all human conflict a method which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation. The foundation of such a method is love;" and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Cambridge N.A.A.C.P. on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council January 10, 2000.
