Professional

Experience:

Mr. Platt joined Notter Finegold + Alexander in 1969 from MIT after a staff research appointment developing computer aided design systems. In 1970 he became an Associate and in 1978 he became a Principal. He is a senior designer and project manager, responsible for a large number of projects completed by the firm. He has extensive field construction experience and has performed contract administration. With his graphic skill, he has developed a special role in our firm by visually developing, interpreting, and communicating conceptual ideas for virtually all of our planning and downtown urban design projects. He is an expert in adaptive reuse planning, design, and feasibility work. His projects include:

RENOVATION PROJECTS OF HISTORIC BUILDINGS

Muzzey High Condominiums, Lexington, MA - Conversion of an early 20th century school located in an historic district.

BayBank/Harvard Trust, Concord, MA - Renovation of two historic buildings.

Building 36, Charlestown Navy Yard, MA - Conversion of 1860's granite waterfront structure to offices.

Bon Marche' Building, Lowell, MA - Facade renovation of 19th century commercial palace.

Union Station, New London, CT - Restoration and renovation of an H.H. Richardson railroad station.

Custom House and Gardner Building, Boston's Long Wharf - Restoration and renovation of early 19th century waterfront warehouses for mixed use.

PROJECTS INVOLVING NATIONAL REGISTER LISTING

Euclid Avenue School, Jamestown NY - Services for National Register Nomination, subsequent design for residential conversion.

Ellicott Historic District, Buffalo, NY - Historic District study and by-law preparation.

Historic Multiple Resource District, Springfield, MA National Register District nomination of over 70 properties in the downtown.

DOWNTOWN REVITALIZATION STUDIES

Worcester Downtown Plan, Worcester, MA - Concept plan for the Worcester Area Chamber of Commerce and the City of Worcester.

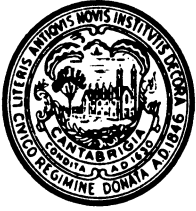

Art Deco District Study, Miami Beach, FL - Major master plan for Miami Beach.

Downtown Holyoke, MA - Planning for Holyoke's commercial core area.
