A P R O C L A M A T I O N O F T H A N K S G I V I N G

WHEREAS: America's first independent Proclamation of Thanksgiving was issued by order of the Provincial Congress assembled in Cambridge and signed by John Hancock, President, on October 22, 1774; and

WHEREAS: We continue to be nourished by the fruits of earth's bounty, sustained by divine grace through the gifts of the land; and

WHEREAS: As we have been most blessed, much is expected of us; as we have received abundantly, we would be most generous in our giving; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That I, Francis H. Duehay, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby proclaim November 28, 1985 as a Day of Thanksgiving, and urge that we affirm our thoughtfulness by sharing our abundance with the hungry on this day and throughout the cold winter months, that our abundance may be a means of grace to those in need; and be it further

RESOLVED: That I do hereby proclaim the period, November 18-28, as HUNGER AWARENESS WEEK in Cambridge and urge all citizens to contribute food for the needy in Cambridge through their churches and community organizations; and be it further

RESOLVED: That I do hereby encourage all citizens of Cambridge to join in a common interfaith celebration of Thanksgiving at St. Mary's of the Annunciation Church, 134 Norfolk Street at Harvard Street at 7:30 PM on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 27, 1985.
