In Board of Aldermen, June 22 1870

The Committee on Roads and Bridges. would respectfully
Report:

That in the award of damages for the widening of Bridge Street, there was included in the sum awarded to the Warrant Holders, the claim of $70.00 "for moving offices" - that one of these offices was the property of Howland & Sargent, lessors, and has been moved by them at an expense of $30.00 - which sum should be allowed to them and deducted from the gross sum awarded to the Warrant Holders.

lessors. Howland and Sargent have also been at an expense of $123.00 in removing their lumber from the land taken for Bridge Street, and lessors, Cummings, Kenney & Co., also less-ors at an expense of $125.50 for removing their lumber, - for which items of damage no award was made. The Committee would recommend the adoption of the accompanying Order For the Committee James H. Sparrow
