WHEREAS: We in Cambridge ever strive for greater friendship and cooperation with our neighbor across the Charles, the City of Boston, Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS: On November 2, 1993, the City of Boston elected as its Mayor a true public servant, THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. MENINO, a man who has dedicated himself to serving the people of Boston; and

WHEREAS: THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. MENINO served nine years on the Boston City Council as the District Councillor from Hyde Park, and served as a champion for the needs of small businesses; and

WHEREAS: THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. MENINO also served on the Committees such as Ways and Means, Government and Finance, City and Neighborhood Services, Homelessness, Planning and Development, and Housing, thus addressing the widest variety of urban concerns; and

WHEREAS: His abilities as a leader and consensus builder won him the Presidency of the city Council in 1993, and therefore to become Acting Mayor on July 12, 1993; and

WHEREAS: Upon his election as Mayor in November, THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. MENINO has made public safety, youth services, education and jobs - concerns central to every American inner-city - the top priorities of his new administration; and

- WHEREAS: THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. MENINO has proven his commitment to all of the citizens of Boston, regardless of race, creed, or gender; and
- WHEREAS: This commitment is made evident in his appointment to the post of Mayoral Chief of Staff the first African-American ever to hold that office in the City of Boston; and
- WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge looks forward to four years of dedicated leadership in Boston, and hopes that the friendship of our cities will blossom under that leadership; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby wish great luck and courage to THE HONORABLE THOMAS M. MENINO, as he leads the City of Boston for the next four years.
