HARVARD COLLEGE
OBSERVATORY.

Cambridge, Sept. 28, 1885.

Dear Sir, Your letter of June 24, on the subject of a crossing on Garden St., opposite Linnagan St., was duly received. I regret that the Committee on Roads and Bridges did not think fit to do some part of the proposed work, at the expense of the city.
Perhaps, however, the sum required for the crossing can be raised among those who would be most directly benefited by it.
Can you furnish an estimate of the cost of the crossing? If you will kindly send me one,
I will see whether the money can be provided.

Yours respectfully
Edward C. Perkins
