COUNCILLOR WALSH
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: Today, when more often than is comfortable, headline after headline and news item after news item in the press recounts a horror story which undermines the presence of traditional values, it was very gratifying to read the good news in the August 1, 1991 Cambridge Chronicle regarding the celebration of their 50th Wedding Anniversary by Lillian and Charles Ferraro of 9 Walnut Avenue, Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: The truism that a picture says a thousand words spoke eloquently in the news photo where Lillian and Charles are seen waiting to board the trolley rented by their eleven children for a celebratory tour around the city after the formal Commemorative Mass at St. Francis Church. It was a picture of two wonderful people from two of Cambridge's most respected families, Lillian (DeGuglielmo) and Charles Ferraro who, after fifty years of marriage, could celebrate with their children and their families not only a date which occurred in the past, but they could take great satisfaction in knowing that during the intervening years their shared commitment to the life of love and the love of life brought into being a family which continues the DeGuglielmo/Ferraro tradition in the Cambridge community; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council expresses congratulations to Lillian and Charles Ferraro as they celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary and wishes them many years of continued good health, good fortune and good friends; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare a duly engrossed copy of this resolution and transmit same to Lillian and Charles Ferraro on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council August 7, 1991.
