Dear Ms. Drury:

Thank you for your letter pursuant the resolution of the Cambridge City Council outlining its priorities in the state budget for the 2002 fiscal year. Upon reviewing the Council's goals, I find myself in strong support of many of its priorities.

As you may know, the state's current fiscal difficulties will limit both the number of new programs in the fiscal year 2002 budget as well as increases in existing programs. However, during last month's debate on the FY 2002 budget, I worked hard to procure increased funding for several of the Council's priorities, particularly public education and affordable housing.

Please convey this to the members of the City Council. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Paul C. Demakis
