In Board of Aldermen,
November 27th, 1900.

Resolved: That the public necessity and convenience require that a private way known as Sargent street, extending from Rindge avenue to Railroad street, a private way, so-called, should be laid out as a public way, at the width of thirty (30) feet, said Sargent street being bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the westerly line of Sargent street at its intersection with the southerly line of Rindge avenue; thence running easterly along said southerly line, thirty and twenty-two hundredths (30.22) feet to its intersection with the easterly line of Sargent street; thence southerly parallel to and thirty (30) feet distant easterly with the westerly line of Sargent street, eight hundred and thirty-six and six tenths (836.6) feet to its intersection with the northerly line of Railroad street; thence westerly along said northerly line, thirty-one and one tenth (31.1) feet to its intersection with the westerly line of Sargent street; thence northerly along said westerly line parallel to and two hundred (200) feet distant easterly from the easterly line of Sherman street, eight hundred and thirty and one tenth (830.1) feet to its intersection with the southerly line of Rindge avenue at the point of beginning. Containing twenty-five thousand (25,000) square feet, more or less.

The above described parcel of land is shown on a plan entitled "Plan of Sargent street for Acceptance," drawn L. M. Hastings, City Engineer, dated November 22, 1900, and on file in the office of the City Engineer, Cambridge, Mass.

It is therefore

Ordered: That due notice be given to the owners of land abutting on said Sargent street, between the points mentioned, and all other persons interested, by a delivery of a copy of this order of notice in the manner prescribed by law, and by publication in the newspaper called the Cambridge Press, that this Board intends to extend and lay out said Sargent street, at the width of thirty (30) feet, by taking a portion of their land and laying out the same as a public street, and that Tuesday, the 18th day of December next, at 8.30 o'clock P. M., and the Aldermanic Chamber, City Hall, are assigned as the time and place for hearing any objections which may be made thereto.
