IN CITY COUNCIL

October 19, 1992

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: Cambridge is a City of diverse people and neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS: Too often we are caught in our own little urban existence, not allowing ourselves time to meet our neighbors or just to say "hello"; and

WHEREAS: In the effort to bring neighbors and friends together, Mayor Emeritus Alfred E. Vellucci, along with his friends at the Dante Alighieri Center, have begun the "HI, NEIGHBOR" campaign; and

WHEREAS: This campaign will begin with a noon time lunch extravaganza, with delectable Italian food. The luncheon will be held on October 21st, at noon time at the Dante Alighieri Italian Center, for a low cost of five dollars; and

WHEREAS: Friends from the business community, residents and visitors alike will be joined by the Speaker of the House Charles Flaherty, City Manager Robert Healy, School Superintendent Mary Lou McGrath and many other local notables; and

WHEREAS: Italians have said, "Friendship is the cement of the soul, the sweetener of life and the solder of a neighborhood people, and this event will provide a great opportunity for the meeting of old friends, and the making of new ones; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council extends its support for this worthy event, and does urge all residents to take part in the "HI NEIGHBOR" effort in order to make Cambridge an even friendlier, more neighborly place.

In City Council October 19, 1992.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
