- WHEREAS: On November 2, 1983, by Act of Congress, the third Monday of every January was designated Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday; and
- WHEREAS: Here in Cambridge, as well as across the nation, we reflect on the immortal words of Dr. King, "I have a dream." It is his dream, his vision of a better America, that so much captured the imagination, the hopes and the desire of the millions of weary, down trodden Americans who knew that life could be and must be better; and
- WHEREAS: Today, 71 years after his birth, we are still urged by the spirit of his words to persevere in the struggle for a just society in our own ways and in our own lives; and
- WHEREAS: In honor of this national hero, The Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center and GNE Productions present the 13th Annual Joyful Noise Gospel Concert commemorating the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on Sunday, January 16, 2000, at 4 PM, at Sanders Theater, Harvard University, 45 Quincy Street, Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: This year's program will feature radio personality Eric Jackson, The Reverend Jeffrey Brown and a roster of artists that includes: Ruth Hamilton, Robert Honeysucker, Cambridge Community Chorus, The Patterson Chorale, Frances Ingram, New England Gospel Ensemble, Saint Paul Inspirational Choir, Cambridge Rindge & Latin High School Vocal Ensemble, Confirmation and Elder Hu White and The Gospel Unlimited Singers; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council hereby supports this special event and encourages all Cantabrigians to come and enjoy these talented musicians; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to The Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center and GNE Productions on behalf of the entire City Council.
