Resolution on International Women's Day

St.

WHEREAS March is Women's History Month in the United States and March 8 is International Women's Day throughout the world and

WHEREAS It has become a tradition in Cambridge to dedicate the month of March to acknowledging and celebrating the lives and work of women from throughout our city and from around the world and

WHEREAS The Cambridge Commission on the Status of Women has organized several multicultural events and displays in honor of the struggle for women's rights and equality including

- "Cambridge Celebrates Women" co-sponsored with Mayor Kenneth E. Reeves and the Cambridge YWCA on Sunday, March 22 and
- a Mayor's reception for the women scholars of the Bunting Institute of Radcliffe College on Friday, March 27 and
- City Hall displays of the Cambridge Women's Quilts by the Oral History Center and a photo exhibit of Cambridge African-American women artists, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Cambridge City Council declares March "Women's Month" in Cambridge and encourages its citizens and institutions to join in celebrations and work for the full participation of women in our society and an end to all forms of violence and discrimination against women.
