IN CITY COUNCIL

December 7, 1981

COUNCILLOR WALTER SULLIVAN

- WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of this City Council that a colleague in Government, James H. McGee, Mayor of Dayton, Ohio will retire from office on January 4, 1982; and
- WHEREAS: Mayor McGee, a respected and well-known attorney of Dayton, was appointed to the Dayton City Commission to fill an unexpired term in February of 1967, from where he first began to become recognized for his strong commitment to public service and the community in which he serves; and
- WHEREAS: In July of 1970, Jim McGee was again tapped by his colleagues to fill the office of Mayor, which at that time had become vacant and in 1973, was elected to this position and subsequently re-elected in 1977, all of which is in true recognition of the man's performance on behalf of the entire population of Dayton; and
- WHEREAS: The Mayor's ability to maintain a balance of Public Service/Human Service Programs during a complex era, one in which much federal money has been either reduced or stopped, has been his principal strength; and
- WHEREAS: The Mayor's record of public service is one which all public officials can be proud, since it covers such a wide spectrum, as evidenced in his involvement in the Model Cities Program, his leadership in the revitalization of downtown Dayton, his aggressive attitude toward economic development and his keen interest in Neighborhood Renewal Projects; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record extending its sincere congratulations to Mayor James H. McGee on his many accomplishments in and for the betterment of his beloved city and its people during his long tenure in office and to further extend its sincere best wishes for a healthy and happy future; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare for presentation to Mayor McGee a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution on behalf of the entire City Council.
