Dear Friends of the Peabody School,

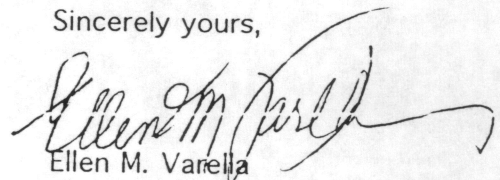

Have you read "Charlotte's Web" lately? Do you remember Margaret Wise Brown the author of "Good Night Moon" and "The Runaway Bunny"? Was Eric Carle one of your favorite author/illustrators?

The families, students and staff of the Peabody School invite you to join them during the Fourth Annual Authors Week, Monday, April 3rd through Friday, April 7th. Come and visit with local authors, illustrators, newscasters, storytellers, reenactors and singers. Or better yet, come and participate in our Guest Reader Series. Choose your favorite children's book and call Nancy, our literary secretary, to inform her of the date and time you will read to a kindergarten, first, second or third grade class. Our seventh and eighth grade reporters will greet you and interview you for our Guest Readers Information Display.

On Monday, April 3rd, bring a friend and join us for our "kick off" breakfast. Visit our library and meet the Library Power Parent Liaison, Pam Curtis. On Friday, April 7th, our eighth grade students will sponsor a salad bar. You may order salad ahead by calling Nancy. A variety of items will be available to purchase. There will also be a special cake supplied by Marilyn Tompkins of the Cambridge Food Services. Feel free to stay and celebrate the week's events beginning at 1:30 in our gym. This Grand Finale will feature a video of the week's happenings, book presentations to the library by all homeroom classes and closing ceremonies led by Sally Sweitzer of the musical group Mirage.

We all look forward to your visit and hope that you will make our Annual Authors Week an annual event in your life, too!

Sincerely yours,

Ellen M. Varella
