Dear Councillor Sullivan:

As you know, Premier Zhu Rongji of the People's Republic of China will visit the United States in April. Although his itinerary has not been formally announced, he will conclude his visit to this country on Wednesday, April 14, with a major address at MIT on science, technology and education in a global society.

I am writing to invite you to attend Premier Zhu's lecture, which will be held at 11:00 A.M. in Kresge Auditorium on our campus. Although his tight schedule does not provide for an opportunity to meet with him personally, his lecture and the question-and-answer period should be very interesting. (If you are not able to join us, we have been told that CNN will carry the event live on its national and international channels.)

Because of the strong interest in this event, I would ask that you let us know as soon as possible whether or not you would like to attend. We will then send you detailed information about the schedule, security arrangements, and so forth. Please respond to Mr. Del Cross by telephone at 617-253-5615 or by E-mail to delray@mit.edu.

I look forward to hearing from you and very much hope that you can join us for this historic occasion.

Sincerely yours,
