2. The purposes for which the corporation is formed are as follows:

1b

To operate and maintain a society for the promotion, encouragement, development, criticism and support of the arts, and in connection therewith, to publish and distribute magazines, books and other written works; and

To organize and conduct workshops, meetings, symposia and conferences for the discussion, review and criticism of literature, poetry, literary comment and other written works; and

To provide speakers and lecturers in connection with the above; and

In furtherance of the above the corporation shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry into effect the objects for which it is formed, and in general to have and exercise all powers conferred by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts upon corporations created under Chapter 180 of the Massachusetts General Laws as they may now be or are hereafter amended. The foregoing enumeration of the objects, purposes and powers of the corporation is not intended to, and does not, prohibit or limit the exercise of any other or further rights or powers which may now or hereafter be allowed or permitted by law to the corporation, provided, however, that all gifts and bequests to the corporation and the net earnings and assets of the corporation shall be used only in the United States of America exclusively for the charitable and educational purposes for which it is formed.
