Office of the City Clerk

October 29, 1896.

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the City Council held on the 27th inst, a petition was received from Edmund A. Whitman and thirty-four others requesting "a hearing in joint convention in opposition to a petition now on file relative to the rebuilding of Brookline Street Bridge before any order is adopted having reference to the same."

A hearing has been assigned by the City Council in accordance with the prayer of the petitioners for Tuesday evening, November 10, at 8.30 o'clock. This hearing will take place in the Aldermanic Chamber at City Hall, and you are hereby notified to attend. You may be represented by counsel, if you so desire.

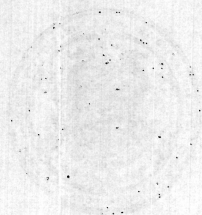

Yours sincerely,

EDWARD J. BRANDON,

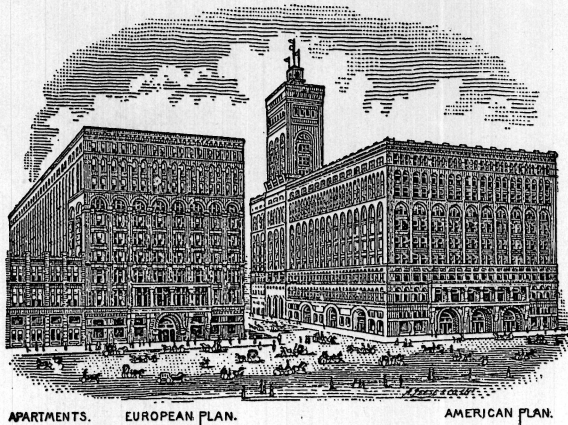

City Clerk.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen and Council of the City of Cambridge

Gentlemen; Being unable to be present at the public hearing granted by your Honorables Board for Tuesday evening the 10th inst; I desire to protest against the petition for the rebuilding of Brookline Bridge, believing that it is not asked for in good faith, seeing that the City of Boston has just expended the sum of about Sixty five Hundred ($6500) Dollars on said bridge; but rather with the idea that the impression may be given, that the citizens of Cambridge are divided, as to the support of the
