Biography Information for Retirement Resolution for
Dorothy Reilly

Dorothy Reilly
88 Pemberton Street
Cambridge, MA

Husband - Frank, a local small businessman
Son - Frank, Jr.
Daughter - Kathy O'Rourke

Grandchildren - John and Lauren O'Rourke
Megan and Christopher Reilly

A graduate of Dorchester High for Girls, Dot married Frank Reilly, a Cambridge native, thirty-five years ago. After raising their two children, Frank and Kathy, Dot returned to work and was appointed as a Clerk-Typist in the Cambridge School Department in September, 1973 and assigned to the Pilot School, an alternative high school program.

Effective May 6, 1988, Dot Reilly will retire from the Cambridge School Department after fifteen years of dedicated service to the students, staff and parents of the Pilot School. Dot's patience and caring has guided many a Pilot student through those difficult adolescent years. The kids will miss her a great deal, but they will remember her as their "school mother" - always trusting, calm and non-judgmental. The staff will remember her contributions to an open and positive office environment and the fact that she always loved her job.

In addition to her loyal service to the Cambridge School Department and the Pilot School community, Dot has also been very active with the Lexington Emblem Club and Our Lady of Pity Bowling League in Cambridge. She looks forward to spending more time with her four grandchildren - John, Lauren, Megan and Christopher - and traveling with her husband, Frank. She and her husband reside at 88 Pemberton Street.

The Pilot School faculty is hosting a reception on May 4, 1988 at the Harvard Faculty Club for Dot, in honor of her retirement from the Cambridge School Department. For ticket information, please call Dr. Ray F. Shurtleff (Pilot School) or Carol Gentile (CRLS Career Resource Center) at 498-9200.
