

DUE MAY

7/29/96.

~~SECRET~~ A11.

WHEREAS, Mary Padula served as the Secretary of the Massachusetts Executive Office of Communities and Development from 1991 through June, 1996; and

WHEREAS, Mary Padula understands the challenges facing municipal government through her long-time involvement in various leadership roles in her hometown of Lunenburg; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Padula served with distinction in the Massachusetts State Senate from 1983 to 1991, and received the Legislator of the Year Award in 1983 from the Massachusetts Municipal Association; and

WHEREAS, during her tenure as the EOCD Secretary, she played a key role in allocating financial resources to the City of Cambridge for affordable housing and economic development activities; and

WHEREAS, under Secretary Padula, EOCD provided significant financial assistance to several large affordable housing development projects, including Auburn Court, the Cambridge YMCA, Cambridge Community Properties, and the Hampshire-Columbia Condominium; and,

WHEREAS, Secretary Padula demonstrated foresight on public housing issues, and provided key financial assistance to the Cambridge Housing Authority in efforts to redevelop the Roosevelt Towers community, as well as several other state-assisted developments in the City; and

WHEREAS, in an era of scarce public resources, Mary Padula recognized the need to build partnerships between various levels of government, and played a major role in establishing a strong partnership with the City around affordable housing and community development issues; and

WHEREAS, Mary Padula has resigned from her Cabinet position as EOCD Secretary effective June 30, 1996; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Cambridge City Council extends its deepest appreciation to Mary Padula for her interest and strong support for the City of Cambridge and its community development activities and wishes her well in her future endeavors.
