Roll not suspended

City of Cambridge

Councillor Vellucci

In City Council,
February 11, 1963.WHEREAS:-

The roll that Cambridge has played in the struggle for freedom is known to all men and is a vital part of the history of the United States of America, and

WHEREAS:-

In this great cosmopolitan City of Cambridge all of our citizens meet the day in a true "Brotherhood of Man" enjoying all the blessings which are inherent in a democratic system of government of the people, for the people, and by the people, and

WHEREAS:-

Cambridge has rightfully earned this title as the University City for in our midst students of many races and climes, of many different religious tenets and of many varied national characteristics, possessed of the one dominant desire among all men to live in peace with one another, which peace they enjoy under the Stars and Stripes as a result of man's never ending quest for freedom, and

WHEREAS:-

Today as in the past the freedom of mankind is threatened by those who would deny this freedom and make the individual a chattel of the state, therefore be it

ORDERED:-

That the area bounded by Bow Street and Mt. Auburn Street be named "Freedom Square" in order to perpetuate in the minds of all those students who come to Cambridge from the four corners of the world the spirit of freedom which was nourished here in Cambridge.
