

Cambridge, March 29 1887

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge,

The undersigned respectfully pray that Daye Court be laid out as a forty foot street, taking the land belonging to

H. O. Haughton & Co., now constituting Daye Court (20 feet wide more or less), and enough more to make up the requisite width, from what is now the mill-pond.

H. O. Haughton

H. O. Haughton to agree to give the land now constituting Daye Court without any claim for damages.
