whereas:

The Harvard University Selection Committee announced the appointment of Neil Leon Rudenshine Ph.D. as the 26th president of the university, completing an exhaustive 10 month search process, and

whereas:

Dr. Rudenshine, a Yale undergraduate, obtained his doctorate from Harvard and served on the faculty teaching English is an accomplished scholar and a firm but conciliatory administrator, and

whereas:

Dr. Rudenshine began his ^{academic} administrative career as dean of students at Princeton University and four years later was appointed dean of the college a position from which he oversaw the undergraduate curriculum, admissions, financial aid, academic advising and career counseling; and in 1977 was appointed President of the university managing Princeton's budget and serving as its affirmative action officer, and

whereas:

As Dr. Rudenshine leaves his current position as Executive Vice President of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, one of his many tasks will be to involve himself with not only Harvard University but the community in which it exists in an effort to continue and expand upon the positive dialogue which is healthy for the "gown-gown" relationship. Now therefore be it

Resolved:

That this City Council go on record extending a sincere welcome to Dr. Neil R. Benson as he assumes the presidency of Harvard University upon the retirement of President Derek C. Bok
