- WHEREAS: It is with a great deal of pleasure that the citizens of Cambridge welcome the members of the Leavell/Lovell family to Boston and Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: In this new millennium the family continues to be the strongest human circle in society; and
- WHEREAS: You are together a strong family. You must today revere your forebears who endured so much to assure your passage to the progress that you now enjoy; and
- WHEREAS: It is perfect that you have chosen to gather together at the African Meeting House, the oldest standing church in America--you have here returned to the beginnings of African people in America; and
- WHEREAS: The walls of the African Meeting House were built by free Blacks in Boston it is appropriate here that the members of the family, especially the children, touch the walls to be empowered by the legacy of their forebears; and
- WHEREAS: In 1806, with little money but great faith the Black men and women of Beacon Hill built this fortress from oppression and ignorance. They build a Meeting House in which to worship and in which to provide a welcoming school for their children; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: You have chosen solid ground on which to host your family reunion. May you have an extraordinary time while you are here. Your son Ronald Leavell is a very gifted man who as an Event Planner has taught Greater Boston how to have a good and elegant time. We thank you for him. Welcome once, welcome twice, welcome thrice. Saturday, July 1, 2000 shall be Leavell/Lovell family Day in Cambridge; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record welcoming the Leavell/Lovell family as they visit Cambridge and greater Boston for a family reunion; and be it further
