In Board of Aldermen,
May 22d, 1900.

Resolved: That the public necessity and convenience require that Sidney street should be extended and laid out at the width of forty (40) feet between Pacific and Chestnut streets, and that for the purpose of such extension and laying out it is necessary to take certain strips of private land bounded and described as follows:—

Beginning at a point in the northwesterly line of Sidney street at its intersection with the southwesterly line of Pacific street; thence running southeasterly along said line of Pacific street, forty and five-hundredths (40.05) feet to its intersection with the southeasterly line of Sidney street; thence southwesterly along said southeasterly line of Sidney street, about two thousand and eighty-three (2083) feet to its intersection with the northeasterly line of Chestnut street; thence northwesterly along said line of Chestnut street, forty (40) feet to its intersection with the northwesterly line of Sidney street; thence northeasterly along said northwesterly line of Sidney street, parallel to and forty (40) feet distant northwesterly from said southeasterly line of Sidney street, about two thousand and eighty-three (2083) feet to its intersection with the southwesterly line of Pacific street, at the point of beginning. Containing eighty-three thousand three hundred and twenty (83,320) square feet, more or less.

The above described parcel of land is shown on a plan entitled "plan of Sidney street for Acceptance," drawn by L. M. Hastings, City Engineer, dated April 17, 1900, on file in the office of the City Engineer of Cambridge, Mass. It is therefore Ordered: That due notice be given to the owners of land abutting on said Sidney street, between the points mentioned, and all other persons interested, by a delivery of a copy of this order of notice in the manner prescribed by law, and by publication in the newspaper called the Cambridge Chronicle, that this Board intends to extend and lay out said Sidney street to the width of forty (40) feet, by taking a portion of their land and laying out the same as a public street, and that Tuesday, the 5th day of June, at 8.30 o'clock P. M., and the Aldermanic Chamber, City Hall, are assigned as the time and place for hearing any objections which may be made thereto.

Adopted. Sent to the Common Council for concurrence. Attest: Edward J. Brandon, City Clerk. In Common Council, May 22, 1900. Concurred, Attest: Edward A. Counihan, Clerk.
