IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor William H. Walsh

May 22, 1989

WHEREAS: The fact that one person can live in a neighborhood for a long time without really being a neighbor and another can live in a neighborhood for a short time and be remembered and respected as one who was a real neighbor has been brought home with the recent death of Mrs. Jewell A. Bibby of 6 Hurlbut Street, Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Having moved to Cambridge only six years ago, she was respected as a person of dignity, character, and independence in her new neighborhood, while at the same time she held on to her roots in her former neighborhood of Arlington especially by her continued identification with the Catholic Club in Arlington and her meetings with the Bridge Club; and

WHEREAS: As a mother and grandmother, she has left to her three daughters and grandchildren a legacy of what life is really about, being a real neighbor in the neighborhood where you are and where you have been; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Council expresses sympathy to the family of Mrs. Jewell A. Bibby in their hour of loss; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare a duly engrossed copy of this Resolution and transmit same to the family of Mrs. Jewell A. Bibby.
