IN CITY COUNCIL

April 22, 1991

MAYOR WOLF

WHEREAS: Across the United States on April 23, many cities will celebrate the achievements of thousands of young people who have provided service to their communities; and

WHEREAS: Local governments, institutions, and others have long benefited from the countless hours of volunteer work performed by these young people; and

WHEREAS: In Cambridge, we are particularly proud of the work achieved by dozens of student volunteers who have provided at four hours a week service to some organization within their community or school; and

WHEREAS: National Youth Service Day, in Cambridge, will be celebrated in tandem with the Jefferson Forum, the School Volunteers, and local service organization to celebrate the hundreds of hours of all these young men and women, but also the positive role of teenagers in our community; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council sends sincerest congratulations to the young men and women who have offered over the past year their time and energy giving back to their community and very best wishes on the occasion of celebrations that will take place on April 23, 1991 at Cambridge Rindge and Latin School; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Headmaster Edward Sarasin on behalf of all the staff, teachers, and students who have taken part in this year's National Youth Service Day celebrations.

In City Council April 22, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.
