

To the Honorable the Mayor and Aldermen, Surveyors & Highways
of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully represents

That by a Notice dated June 2nd, 1874, and by order, as it is said, of our Board made by your Board on April 25th, 1874, she is informed by George Carr, your Superintendent of Streets, that you have directed him the said Carr to remove her House and Fence thereon being (as is in said Notice alleged) an encroachment on Magazine Street:

That she is informed and verily believes that her said House and Fence are not, nor is either of them an encroachment upon said Street:
and prays for a hearing before your Honorable Board or some Committee thereof:

And as in duty bound she ever prays:

Eliza Ann May
