BORN # ORDERS 7-29-96

Vice Mayor Born, AC

Late Order for July 29, 1996

Whereas: Lesley College has been conducting training in "Expressive Therapy" at their Washington Avenue campus, and

Whereas: This training involves loud chanting and drum beating for hours at a time during morning and afternoon hours, and

Whereas: This building where this training takes place sits in the middle of a densely populated residential neighborhood where many of the neighbors have expressed concern about their inability to carry on their daily routine with this kind of loud repetitive noise, and

Whereas: Recent complaints to Lesley College have yielded only the assurance that this noise will stop in three weeks when the program is over, therefore be it

Ordered: That the City Manager be and hereby is ordered to convey the concern of the City Council about this disturbance of the peace to Lesley College with the request that the program be relocated and be it further Ordered: That the City Manager consult with the License Commission and the Police to see if any ordinances are being violated, with the intent of strict enforcement.
