WHEREAS:

Frederick H. Burke

The Publix Central Square Theatre is approaching its thirteenth year as a Cambridge institution, and

WHEREAS:

Their efforts in behalf of Cambridge have been indicated by the assistance rendered the many and varied activities in which our citizens have shown an interest: notably in the McGrath testimonial, the O'Connor testimonial, the Elks Thanksgiving and Christmas basket fund, their efforts in behalf of better business and prosperity weeks, in fact their willingness to co-operate in every possible way on all occasions, and

WHEREAS:

Within a fortnight public recognition was manifested by the Cambridge Industrial Association in tendering a luncheon to Manager Newman for his untiring efforts in bringing to a successful conclusion the mid-night show for the benefit of the Unemployment Fund, it is

RESOLVED:

That we, the City Council of the City of Cambridge, hereby record our appreciation of the active participation and unselfish devotion to the various causes by Manager Lew Newman of the Publix Central Square Theatre, a genial, energetic and capable gentleman, and it is further

RESOLVED:

That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Publix Theatre Corporation of New York, to the Publix Theatre Corporation of Boston and to the Publix Central Square Theatre of Cambridge.
