

❖CITY❖OF❖CAMBRIDGE.❖

In Board of Aldermen, Oct. 6 1885

~~Ordered,~~

The Standing Committee on Roads and Bridges, which has referred the petition of L. J. Livermore and others praying for a crossing from near the watering trough in front of the flag-staff common in ward one, to the iron-gate entrance to the college grounds,

Reports

That inasmuch as your Committee has no appropriation for the purpose of such crossing, it is recommended that the petitioners have leave to withdraw.

For the Committee.
