To the Honorable, the City Council:

With reference to order of your Honorable Body with regard to the surplus food store in Cambridge, I have been advised by James B. Hartgering, M. D., Commissioner of Health, Hospital and Welfare, that the surplus food store on Cambridge Street will remain open for another six months, at which time it is expected that the surplus food program will be terminated and replaced with a food stamp program. The State has no plans to close the store before this time.

Very truly yours,

John H. Corcoran
City Manager
