Damages. Petitioner St.

Feb. 26. 1873.

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Cambridge

Respectfully Represents

The Undersigned

that the City of Cambridge has taken most of the estate belonging to herself and husband James Curnley at the Corner of Hastings & Brewery streets in said Cambridge, for the purpose of widening Brewery St. that in consequence of the widening said street, there is only a narrow strip of land left remaining to them to wit. some six feet wide, and has become almost worthless in consequence for building or other purposes - that they have been awarded only $1200, or thereabouts as damages, which award is wholly inadequate to the real damage

Wherefore she prays (her husband being absent) that they may be awarded additional damages in the matter, and as in duty bound will ever pray -

Witness to make. } Mrs Mary <sup>her</sup> Curnley.
