

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen,

June 11th, 1912.

WHEREAS:-

The unusual activity of the police force of this city during the past few days, more especially in the northern part of our city, has been noted and has been subject to much criticism by reason of the reckless manner in which the members of said police force have been driving automobiles in the public streets, contrary to the requirements of all the laws of this Commonwealth, and to the ordinances of this city, and

WHEREAS:-

There appears to be no proper justification for the senseless manner in which automobiles have been used menacing lives of citizens of this city, and

WHEREAS:-

It is understood that said automobile service has been supplied to the police department by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, therefore be it

ORDERED:-

That the Chief of Police be requested to issue proper instructions to the several division officers in this city, to the effect that greater care be exercised in the use of said automobiles, and that any necessary means of transportation in the performance of public duty be provided at the expense of the City of Cambridge.

ADOPTED.
